

Doomed to hunger through unlawful warfare strategy, Syria, Yemen starve

The gravity of the situation was fully realized when the images of babies who were about to die of hunger filmed by an AFP reporter were featured in the international media. The babies seen on the images were so severely malnourished that they could not even make much of a noise to cry. The mothers were also too undernourished to breastfeed their babies, while the fathers were unable to afford the much-needed food.
