

Muslim countries' support for one another is on the increase

Feelings of solidarity, brotherhood and friendship, longed for over so many years, have increasingly begun dominating the Islamic world. Just about every day the newspapers report statements from politicians and other eminent figures regarding the need for Muslims to ally themselves together. Every day, a great many cultural and economic steps are being taken to accelerate unity within the Turkish-Islamic world. All these developments are signs that, by the will of God, the establishment of the Turkish-Islamic Union are close at hand.

In his books and in press and television statements, Adnan Oktar particularly emphasizes the importance of the foundation of the Turkish-Islamic Union and has recently in particular concentrated on the urgent need for this. Announcements based on Adnan Oktar's works include such detailed statements as: "There is no reason why these countries, with a common tradition and heritage of religion, language and culture should not act as one," "Unity will be a great blessing and facility for Turkish-Islamic societies," "The current division and an exceedingly artificial and unnecessary one," "The implementation of the awaited union is a matter of great urgency" and "In the event that the Turkish-Islamic world acts in union and unity it will, by God's leave, rise up again."

THE TURKISH-ISLAMIC UNION
UNDER TURKISH LEADERSHIP AND SUPPORTED BY THE TURKIC UNION

The time has come for the Turkish-Islamic world to unite. There is no reason why these communities, with a common religion, language, customs, heritage and tradition, should not unite and act as one. The unification of Turkic-Islamic societies, which generally speak the same language, which believe in the one God, which sincerely submit to our Prophet (peace be upon him) and love him with a profound respect, and which share the Islamic moral values of hospitality, love, loyalty, honesty, security, its sister sciences, will come as a great blessing. The current division between these nations is exceedingly artificial and unnecessary. When the Turkish-Islamic world, which stretches over a wide expanse of land from the Caucasus to Transoxiana and from Morocco to Fiji, acts as one it will, Allah willing, rise gloriously anew. Unification of the heart of Islamic moral values. Allah reveals in the Qur'an that in order for the corruption on Earth to end, believers must be one another's friends and allies and act in unity and union.

... If you do not act in this way [be the friends and protectors of one another] there will be turmoil in the land and great corruption. (Surat al-Araf, 79)

The establishment of the Turkish-Islamic Union is essential if the bloodshed on the world is to stop, for security and freedom to come to an end, if peace and abundance are to prevail, for the Muslim world to attain security and for world peace.

- The secular structure of the Turkish-Islamic Union will protect both believers and unbelievers, and people of all ideologies and beliefs. Not only Muslims will be able to worship and live freely as they wish under the umbrella of this union based on the principles of secularism, democracy and the supremacy of the law, but also Jews and Christians. Not only believers, but also Buddhists, atheists, agnostics and materialists, in short everyone, will be free to express their opinions and live as they choose in the climate of freedom established under the Turkish-Islamic Union. The Turkish-Islamic Union will regard everyone, no matter what their beliefs, opinions, race or nation, as first-class citizens, and will constitute a social state model with its democratic and secular structure that adheres to the proper value of human rights and fundamental liberties.
- The Turkish-Islamic Union is a moderate union. It will be a union based on respect for human beings, based on tolerance and compassion, open-minded and free-thinking, a union of brotherhood and love, rather than one of fanaticism, repression and subjugation. It will establish security for those nations uniting under it and to the other nations of the world. It will be a most excellent thing for the Turkish-Islamic world to have such a rational, reasonable and just leadership, not just for the 1.5 billion or so Muslims who currently face so many difficulties, but also for everyone else in the world. Ever since the time of the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him), Muslims have led the way in such fields as reason, science, philosophy, art, culture and civilization, and have produced stupendous works for the "good of all humanity." It is the Turkish-Islamic Union that will lead the way to the 21st century being an age of real enlightenment.
- The enlightenment brought about by the Turkish-Islamic Union will greatly benefit the entire world. The USA, Russia, China, Israel and all the states of Europe will see that deep-rooted problems that have persisted for many years have suddenly been resolved with the foundation of the Turkish-Islamic Union, which will be of benefit to everyone. All concerns regarding the security, economies and cultural values of the great powers lying outside the Turkish-Islamic Union will disappear once that union has been established. The war against terror will come to an end, cultural conflict will be completely eradicated, it will be possible for underground resources to be used in the best manner by everyone, there will be economic stability and the possibility of crisis will be eliminated, and funds currently diverted to military expenditure will be spent on a high-quality and more secure life for all. A powerful Turkish-Islamic Union is obviously in the interests of all.
- The Turkish-Islamic world is going through a time of maturation. The troubles that have persisted for more than 100 years, from the late 19th century to the present day, have raised the consciousness of and strengthened the Turkish-Islamic world. The moral values of the true faith have spread gloriously across this expanse of land. There now exists a mass of people, and the younger generation in particular, who are mature and aware, and purged of all fanaticism. It is evident that we now have an ideal foundation for the unification of the Turkish-Islamic world that is so exactly and joyfully anticipated. It is essential that proper advantage be taken of this climate and that the requisite steps be taken forthwith.

WHY THE TURKISH-ISLAMIC UNION IS NECESSARY

- The Turkish-Islamic Union is a union of free, free-willed nations, a union of free men. The basis of this union is love, respect, tolerance, justice, and a common purpose, tolerance and free thinking. The aim of the union is to bring the highest level of respect to human beings and to set a new world order. These characteristics established not just Turkish-Islamic union but the whole world, and aimed at happiness.
- When unity is made between nations, strong in their faith and identity. Only genuine faith can provide true friendship and justice. When love and brotherly love has been established for the good pleasure of Allah, without the slightest selfish interest. A new world order can be established. This unity—the love and unity of Allah—will create a new world order. Allah will be satisfied.
- The Turkish-Islamic Union will bring peace to the world. The Turkish-Islamic Union will be an excellent model for the development of the Islamic world and will be a political and social model for the world. It will also be a model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world.
- With the founding of the Turkish-Islamic Union, America, Europe, China, Russia, Japan and all other states will be free. They will be able to live in peace and stability. The Turkish-Islamic Union will be a model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world.
- With the founding of the Turkish-Islamic Union, the West will be free. The West will be able to live in peace and stability. The Turkish-Islamic Union will be a model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world.
- Freedom of ideas and expression will be guaranteed in the Turkish-Islamic Union. People holding all kinds of beliefs and ideas will be able to express their ideas in free peace and stability. These people's rights will be protected by all means and everyone's ideas will be respected with tolerance. Under the leadership of the Turkish-Islamic Union, the Islamic world will be a union in which people respect one another's views, communities will be free, equality, justice, and freedom will be established. All people will be free to express their views and opinions. The Turkish-Islamic Union will be a model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world.
- The Turkish-Islamic Union will be a model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world.
- The Turkish-Islamic Union will be a model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world.
- The Turkish-Islamic Union will be a model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world.
- The Turkish-Islamic Union will be a model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world. It will be a political and social model for the world.

FOUNDATION ON THE PRESERVATION OF NATIONAL VALUES

One of the excellent consequences of Adnan Oktar's concentrating with great importance on the unity of the Turkish-Islamic world is that supporting Turkey's membership of the UN Security Council. Reports in the press have emphasised the following issues:

"Representatives of member countries of the OIC and the Arab Group have placed on record THEIR BELIEF THAT TURKISH MEMBERSHIP WILL CONTRIBUTE TO WORLD PEACE. It has been learned that while thanking Babacan for his efforts to make the Middle East a place of peace, the Arab Group and OIC member country representatives regard temporary Turkish membership as very good timing. IOC member country representatives also expressed their pleasure at seeing Turkey on their side on all matters, and it was noted that they greatly appreciated Turkish officials' quest for a solution to the problems of less developed countries."

One of the most noteworthy aspects of these statements is that the Islamic world sincerely supports Turkish leadership. Adnan Oktar also notes in his statements the importance of Turkey's Ottoman legacy and has frequently emphasized that it is Turkey that will lead the Turkish Islamic Union. The current developments show that the entire Islamic world supports the unity, solidarity and Turkish leadership stressed by Adnan Oktar very sincerely.

RELEVANT STATEMENTS BY ADNAN OKTAR

MPL TV- April 23, 2008

MPL: In addition to the theory of evolution, you are also very active regarding the Turkish-Islamic Union. You have made progress. They do want Turkey to lead it, do they not? But why should Turkey lead it? What does Turkey have to gain?

ADNAN OKTAR: Turkey has the experience of state. It has the experience of empire. It is experienced in managing other countries. And it has the ability. The Turkish nation has also remained unsullied. I mean, Anatolia has remained morally uncorrupted. Anatolia has been preserved as it was. Its hospitality, cleanliness, moral virtues, pleasantness, humanity, conception of good neighborliness, compassion and altruism have remained as they were. Europe has lost these. Since these moral values still survive unchanged and since it is the Turks who best apply them, it would seem that it is the Turkish nation that is most able and best suited. I am not the only one to say this. WHICHEVER MUSLIM STATE YOU GO TO, THEY ARE SAYING THE SAME THING THERE, TOO. COME AND LEAD US... EVERYONE SHALL KEEP THEIR OWN STATE, BUT THERE MUST BE A SPIRITUAL UNION. THAT IS THE TURKISH-ISLAMIC UNION since all the Turkic countries are Muslim. This is huge element for equilibrium in the region. Its greatest advantage will be the immediate ending of terror. No such thing as terror will remain. Terror will be eradicated from the face of the Earth. Secondly, there will be an enormous economic revitalization. Most importantly, however, it will lead to peace and well-being. Everyone will be at ease, the atheist as well as the true believer. Christians, Jews and even Buddhists will enjoy greater ease in an Islamic society, a society in which Islamic moral values prevail. That is why it will be enormously beneficial for Islamic moral values to prevail in the region, in the Middle East and in the Turkish-Islamic Union. That is a matter of urgency.

Konya TV-January 29, 2008

ADNAN OKTAR: This is favourable to America. Anarchy will come to an end as soon as an Islamic Union, a Turkish-Islamic Union is established. Terrorism will stop at once, and there will be great wealth and plenty.

ADNAN OKTAR: TURKEY WILL BE A MAJOR STATE. INSHAALLAH, IT WILL LEAD THE TURKISH-ISLAMIC WORLD. Turkey is in any case free, but it will be even freer and more democratic. InshaAllah, it will be even better.

KON TV: So you really believe that Turkey can occupy a leadership position in all these conditions?

ADNAN OKTAR: Our nation is excellent in nature and QUITE CAPABLE OF LEADING.
