

The Impact of Religion Develops

Cardinal Georges Marie Martin Cottier who has officiated as religious affairs advisor for Pope in Vatican stated that the impact of the religion is increasing world wide. During his speech at The Religions and The Civil Authority Conference organized in Rome, he said: "In recent years, we bear witness a religious revival throughout the world. The impact of the religion increases while improving in a positive way thanks to the globalization. Considering the various identifications as reasons of conflict should not be allowed anymore."

<https://www.harunyahya.info/en/articles/the-impact-of-religion-develops>