

Tarawih Prayer at the parking lot of a Church

In Italy, having around 1 million 200 thousand Muslim population, various places are reserved to allow Muslims perform the Tarawih Prayer (The prayer performed at nights along the month of Ramadan).

A huge tent of Ciak Theatre in Milan has been temporarily transformed into a prayer room while the Muslims in Gallarate receive support from the Church authorities.

In Gallarate town which is located near to Varese, the officials of Santi Nazario e Celso Church declared that they have built a huge tent in the parking lot of the church for the Muslims to allow them perform their Tarawih prayers during Ramadan.

Franco Carnevali the archpriest of Santi Nazario e Celso Church explained that they have been allocating the parking lot for the Muslims for three years every Ramadan and added; "Thus, I believe we reinforce a dialogue between various religions and cultures. Right now, we have allocated the same place we did last year to the Muslims to perform their prayers."

<https://www.harunyahya.info/en/articles/tarawih-prayer-at-the-parking-lot-of-a-church>