Swiss citizen embraced Islam after reading the Risale-i Nur collection

Daniel Celliti, the second son of a Haitian mother and an Italian father, stated that he used to study economics at the university but he left the school after getting acquainted with Islam. Celliti expressed that he wondered about Islam after reading the Gospel together with his friends and told "Before becoming a Muslim I was down in the dumps and I was a drug addict. I could not enjoy anything. By means of the Risale-i Nur Collection, I became a Muslim. After being a Muslim, I recovered consciousness. It changed my viewpoint on life and gave up everything in my life, left my family and my education to start out a journey in order to meet with the Muslims living all over the world."
