

The Mayor introduced a new mosque project to be launched in Austria

Siegfried Nagl, Mayor of the City of Graz in Austria introduced the project of a new Culture Center to be constructed due to the demand by Bosnian Muslims living in Graz City.

The Culture Center that will be constructed on a 4 thousand meter square area will involve a mosque, a school, a kindergarten, a restaurant and many shops. The Mayor stressed that there are eighteen thousand Muslims living in Graz and their right to construct a mosque should be respected. Mayor Nagl also invited people of Graz to visit the building and that will be very helpful to remove the preconceptions.
