

Surat Al-'Ankabut, 25-26, 31-32 (In the Qur'an Allah dwells on faith)

Excerpt from Mr. Adnan Oktar's live interview dated September 9th, 2011

Surat Al-'Ankabut, 25-26, 31-32

"He [Abraham] said, 'You have adopted idols apart from Allah as tokens of mutual affection in this world.'"

Notice that there is again weakness of faith. Their lower-selves do not have faith in Allah but idolize idols, their interests, cars, homes, spouses, kids, everything.

"But then on the Day of Rising you will reject one another."

In this world they are very close, they protect one another to the end. They say, "My kids, mother of my kids..." but how about the Hereafter? They will run away from one another in the Hereafter. They will accuse one another of drawing one another into devastation.

And Lot had faith in him. He said, 'I am leaving this place to follow the pleasure of my Lord. He is the Almighty, the All Wise.'

In the Qur'an Allah dwells on faith. Again faith.

"We are going to destroy the people of this city. Truly its inhabitants are wrongdoers.'

He said, 'Lot is in it.' They said, 'We know very well who is in it. For instance, this is also a sign leading to faith. One must know that the angels know better. "We are going to rescue him and his family – except for his wife. She will be one of those who stay behind." Why does she remain behind? Because of weakness of faith.

<https://www.harunyahya.info/en/articles/surat-al-ankabut-25-26-31-32-in-the-quran-allah-dwells-on-faith>