

Surat al-Falaq (Allah creates the daybreak of Islam)

Surat al-Falaq

“Say: ‘I seek refuge with the Lord of Daybreak.’”

Allah creates the daybreak of Islam; What is meant by the Arab spring is the daybreak of Islam. The daybreak of Hazrat Mahdi (as).

Say: ‘I seek refuge with the Lord of Daybreak.’”

It is also Allah Who creates the daybreak.

“from the evil of what He has created,”

For instance, Allah creates the dajjal and satan. One seeks refuge in Allah from their evil.

“and from the evil of the darkness when it gathers,”

One also seeks refuge in Allah from the evil of the time when the attacks and pain become more intense.

“from the evil of women who blow on knots,”

For instance, in the End Times many women have a nature prone to corruption. They cause corruption. They can even found associations, get organized within themselves, but these ones blow on knots. That is, there are women in the End Times who cause conflicts, make knots and blow on those knots and make them even worse. The women of the End Times. Surely this is how the verse refers to the End Times. Otherwise the primary meaning of the verse is clear.

“from the evil of an envier when he envies.”

One seeks refuge in Allah from the jealousy of envious men and all other envious people. For instance, they will feel envy of Hazrat Mahdi (as), his power, his means, health, glory and arts and dominion. This envy was foretold by our Prophet (saas) in details. The unbelievers of the time also envied our Prophet’s (saas) might, power, health, joy and the blessings Allah granted him. That is why one seeks refuge in Allah from the envy of those enviers. We say the same thing, “ We seek refuge in Allah from the evil of the envious.”
