Another country abolished the visa regime with Turkey

The Gulf Today, 2 November 2008

Adnan Oktar: Under the leadership of Turkey, Insha'Allah a Turkish Islamic Union will be established with the unison of the Turkish states and with the aid of a Turkish Union. THIS WILL HAPPEN UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF TURKEY; we are actually proceeding towards this step by step. The leadership of Turkey is the most ideal. Every country will exist on its own as a state but there will be a spiritual union Insha'Allah as in the case of the European Union. The passports will be removed, the requirement for visa will be eliminated, the countries will make trade readily and they will become brothers. In order to accomplish this, the first basis will Insha'Allah...

MPL TV Chessboard Program 19 December 2008

Adnan Oktar: LET THE BORDERS OPEN, LET THE VISAS REPEAL, LET'S MERCHANDISE ABUNDANTLY, LET'S EMBRACE THEM, LET THE JOY AND FESTIVAL BEGIN, LET THE BLESSING AND ABUNDANCE COVER ALL AROUND THE WORLD. Let the world see the evil in treachery, selfishness and let them resemble us.

Hurriyet, 29 November 2011

A bilateral agreement between Turkey and Ecuador to eliminate visa requirements has come into effect, granting citizens the right to travel between the two nations without obtaining a tourist visa.

Foreign Minister Ahmet Davutoğlu and Ecuadorian Deputy Foreign Minister Rafael Lopez signed the agreement in Ankara on July 6th, 2011.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia announced that as of December the 10th, 2011, Turkey and Georgian Citizens are going to travel between the two nations with only identity cards instead of passports

https://www.harunyahya.info/en/articles/another-country-abolished-the-visa-regime-with-turkey-36664