

There is no evolution in the Qur'an

What is the matter with you that you do not hope for honour from Allah, when He created you by successive stages? (Surah Nuh, 13-14)

Has man ever known a point of time when he was not something remembered? (Surat al-Insan, 1)

We created man from a mingled drop to test him, and We made him hearing and seeing. (Surat al-Insan, 2)

His companion, with whom he was debating, said to him, 'Do you then disbelieve in Him Who created you from dust, then from a drop of sperm, and then formed you as a man? (Surat al-Kahf, 37)

Mankind! if you are in any doubt about the Rising, know that We created you from dust then from a drop of sperm then from a clot of blood then from a lump of flesh, formed yet unformed, so We may make things clear to you. We make whatever We want stay in the womb until a specified time and then We bring you out as children so that you can reach your full maturity. Some of you die and some of you revert to the lowest form of life so that, after having knowledge, they then know nothing at all. And you see the earth dead and barren; then when We send down water onto it it quivers and swells and sprouts with luxuriant plants of every kind. (Surat al-Haj, 5)

It is He Who created you from earth, then from a drop of sperm, then from a clot of blood, then He brings you out as infants, then so you may achieve full strength, then so you may become old men – though some of you may die before that time – so that you may reach a predetermined age and so that hopefully you will use your intellect. (Surat Ghafir, 67)

Your Lord said to the angels, 'I am going to create a human being out of clay. (Surat al-Sad, 71)

He created you from a single self, then produced its mate from it, and sent down livestock to you – (Surat az-Zumar, 6)

Those who reject their Lord will have the punishment of Hell. What an evil destination! (Surat al-Mulk, 23) and placed the moon as a light in them and made the sun a blazing lamp? (Surah Nuh, 16)

Allah caused you to grow from the earth then will return you to it and bring you out again.(Surat an-Nuh, 17-18)

Your Lord creates and chooses whatever He wills. The choice is not theirs. Glory be to Allah! He is exalted above anything they associate with Him! (Surat al-Kasas, 68)

Praise be to Allah, the Bringer into Being of the heavens and earth, He who made the angels messengers, with wings – two, three or four. He adds to creation in any way He wills. Allah has power over all things. (Surat al-Fatir, 1)

You are well aware of those of you who broke the Sabbath. We said to them, 'Be apes, despised, cast out.'We made it an exemplary punishment for those there then, and those coming afterwards, and a warning to those who have taqwa. (Surat al-Baqara, 65-66)

Say: 'Shall I tell you of a reward with Allah far worse than that: that of those whom Allah has cursed and with whom He is angry – turning some of them into monkeys and into pigs – and who worshipped false gods? Such people are in a worse situation and further from the right way.' (Surat al-Maida, 60)
