Darwinism, or the theory of evolution, is the worst nonsense in the history of mankind, is devoid of any scientific foundation and has been completely discredited by modern-day science. Darwin himself and all scientists who espoused evolution after him clearly knew that the theory of evolution was a discredited one. However, since the theory of evolution also prepares the foundation for the attempted global spread of the atheist and materialist mindset, the relegation of spiritual values and a growing attachment to material things, it has always enjoyed the support of some secret state apparatuses active in this area.

The theory of evolution has therefore always been supported and kept alive by secret state apparatuses, particularly the British, as well as various influential global underground movements and various atheist institutions. The basic reason why all countries, without exception, keep the theory of evolution in their curricula as if it were an unquestioned truth, and why objections to it are harshly silenced, is that this nonsense is supported by the bodies in question. There is literally a protected 'Darwinist dictatorship' in the world. That dictatorship wants all young people in the world to be raised thinking that this nonsense is really true.

The same thing applies to Turkey. The presence in Turkey of a government that respects religious values is very welcome and something that we had been longing to see, particularly after such difficult times as 28 February. Nonetheless, due to various forms of pressure from the Darwinist dictatorship that dominates the world, our students are still being taught that the theory of evolution is an established fact. Ministry of Education text books still discuss evolution and TRT, the state broadcaster, also supports the foundations of this nonsense through programs and statements involving advocates of evolution, and carelessly carries evolutionist propaganda in its documentaries. The fact that those in charge of preparing the curriculum and TV broadcasts appear unaware of the scientific facts and data is even more alarming.

People may not reflect on the meaning and consequences of this terrible state of affairs. This means that;

* Statements in school text books such as 'Your forebears were microbes' IS AN EXPLICIT DENIAL OF THE EXISTENCE OF GOD (surely God is beyond that).

Darwinizm, diğer adıyla evrim teorisi, hiçbir bilimsel dayanağı olmayan ve günümüz bilimiyle bütün yönleriyle çökertilmiş insanlık tarihinin en büyük safsatasıdır. Darwin'in kendisi de, ardından evrimi savunan tüm bilim adamları da, aslında evrim teorisinin çökmüş bir teori olduğunu açıkça bilmektedirler. Fakat evrim teorisi, dünya üzerinde yaygınlaştırılmaya çalışılan ateist ve materyalist anlayışın yaygınlaşmasına, dini değerlerin arka plana atılmasına ve insanların maddiyata yönelmelerine daha fazla zemin hazırladığından, bu konuda faaliyet yürüten bir kısım derin güçler tarafından daima destek görmüştür.
